SEASON OF GRATITUDE

As we all begin planning our Christmas parties, finalizing our holiday shopping and booking long overdue flights to spend time with family and friends, an amplified feeling of gratitude is palpable this year. Gratitude for our health, our loved ones, and the ability to gather around a table to share a meal, enjoy some belly laughs and celebrate every little thing we took for granted not so very long ago. At Irish 31, the blessings abound and we could not be more grateful for our tireless teams, our supportive communities, and all of you, the people behind The People's Pub. Let's raise a glass to each other this holiday season (naughty and nice), and give heartfelt thanks to the hands and hearts of those that make the feasts, as well as all of those that gather around our tables. Happiest of Holidays, Friends!
